Chapter I

פרק א', משנה ג': אנטוניגוס איש סוכו קבל משמעון הצדיק. הוא היה אומר: אל תהיו כעבדים המשמשין את הרב על מנת לקבל פרס, אלא הווי כעבדים המשמשין את הרב שלא על מנת לקבל פרס, ויהי מורא שמים עליכם.

Chapter 1, Mishnah 2: Antignos of Socho received the tradition from Shimon Hatzaddik would say: Do not be as slaves, who serve their master for the sake of reward. Instead, be as slaves who serve their master, not for the sake of reward. And may the fear of Heaven be upon you.

The words at the end of this Mishnah, “and may the fear of heaven be upon you” is a direct continuation of its beginning. The Mishnah starts by saying that we should not serve Hashem “for the sake of receiving a reward.” This means that we must not serve Hashem to receive any benefit whatsoever. This means that our Divine service should be solely out of love for the Creator, and for no other reason whatsoever. Therefore, the Mishnah concludes by teaching us that in addition to the love of G-d, we must also serve Him out of fear.

Difficulties in Understanding the Mishnah

The Torah explicitly commands us to have fear and awe of Hashem, as it states<sup>2</sup> “You shall fear Hashem your G-d.” Furthermore, the Rambam, whose commentary is the basis of our explanation, codifies this as Jewish law<sup>3</sup>.

The lessons of Pirkei Avos teach us how to be Chassidim, i.e., how to go beyond the letter of Torah law<sup>4</sup>. Why is a specific Torah law included in Avos?

The Rebbe's Explanation

There are two different levels of fear of Hashem. We call these two levels by the names “יראה תתאה-Low-Level Fear” and “יראה עילאה-High-Level Fear<sup>5</sup>.” The lower level of fear is, as its name implies, the fear of not fulfilling G-d's Will. One may be punished (Chas Veshalom) for doing something of which Hashem does not approve. Furthermore, transgressing His Will can cause Hashem to withhold a reward.

This is in stark contrast to the higher level of fear. The term "awe" is a more accurate description of this level of fear. As a result of this emotion, one stands in awe of the majesty and greatness of Hashem. This feeling will not allow one to transgress His Will. The very idea of not following G-d's directives fills one with trembling and shame before the greatness of Hashem.

Based on this, we can answer our question. The Torah's commandment to fear Hashem refers to the lower level of fear. This fear of Hashem comes naturally to the Jew by virtue of his G-dly soul. The Sages see to this level of fear as a small thing. We understand this from the teaching of the Rabbis<sup>6</sup> based on the verse<sup>7</sup> "And now, Israel, what does Hashem, your G-d, demand of you? Only to fear Hashem..." "

This is not the type of fear of Hashem the Mishnah is commanding us to have, which is the higher level of fear of Hashem, awe, and a feeling of how insignificant we are before Hashem.

We began by saying that the teaching "may the fear of heaven be upon you" follows the statement that we should not serve Hashem for the sake of receiving a reward, meaning that we should serve Hashem without expecting a reward. In other words, the Mishnah is telling us to serve Hashem out of love, as we said earlier in the explanation.

Serving Hashem through love is quite a lofty level. The way to attain this is by first serving Hashem through the lower-level fear. Fear of punishment or not receiving reward sparks one to learn the Torah and fulfill Mitzvos. This service of Hashem is not ideal but is most acceptable. The Sages tell us that<sup>8</sup> "a person should always be busy with Torah study, whether for G-d's sake or even if not for His sake, for from (studying Torah which) is not for Hashem's sake will come (Torah study which) is for G-d's sake. This G-dly service as a result of fear of Divine retribution brings the love of Hashem. With this, we can acquire a higher sort of fear. That is why this is a part of Pirkei Avos. It is a way to attain true piety, above the demands of the letter of the law.

This can also help us answer a different question. Further on the Mishnah says that<sup>9</sup>, "Rabbi Eliezer ben Azariah would say, ...If there is no wisdom, there is no fear of G-d; if there is no fear of G-d, there is no wisdom..." The obvious question is, where does one begin? He cannot start from wisdom because he can have no wisdom without fear of Hashem. He cannot start with the fear of Hashem because there is no fear of Hashem without wisdom!

Based on the above, we can understand this. There are two different sorts of fear of G-d; the lower and the higher. One needs to begin serving Hashem with a lower level of fear. From there, one can attain true wisdom. Once a person gains wisdom, he will be able to attain a higher level of fear.
